WORK EXPERIENCE

EY Foundation, Smart Futures Program

Jul 21-Aug 21

- From pitching to clients, to creating a marketing campaign or helping an entrepreneur with a business issue they may face.
- Studied about different industries, organisations and working environments.
- Created a business to a set of judges who were willing to fund business if ideas were good enough.

L'Antica Pizzeria, Restaurant

Aug 22 – Sep 22

- Customer service: Interact directly with customers. I learned how to greet customers, take orders, and ensure a positive dining experience.
- Order management: Managing multiple tables and orders simultaneously. I learned how to take accurate orders, input them into system, and coordinate with the kitchen for timely preparation.
- Time management: Working in a fast-paced environment, I developed time management skills to ensure that orders are delivered promptly and efficiently, minimizing wait times for customers.
- Communication: Effective communication is key, both with customers and with the kitchen staff. I learned to convey special requests, allergies, or dietary restrictions to the kitchen accurately.

Cicchetti Restaurant, Piccadilly

Sep 22 – Apr 23

- I worked part time on weekends while studying during the first semester of my first year.

I worked in the same setting as my previous job, so the skills I have already developed were useful and was easy to blend in.

Stradivarius, Oxford Street

Jul 24 – October 24

- I tidy up and folded the clothes both in the fitting room and around the shop. I put the clothes that come from the fitting rooms and stockroom, in their respective places. I serve customers at cash desk. I do customer service by answering questions that customers have and find the right item.
